THE MAJOR FOOD GROUP STEAKHOUSE THAT TOOK MIAMI BY STORM

Dirty French Steakhouse is a contemporary interpretation of the traditional American Steakhouse located in the heart of Miami's Brickell neighborhood, where the menu celebrates the finest meat and fish, with irresistible bold flavors.

The opulent space consists of numerous dining rooms, each boasting its own dazzling aesthetic. Masterfully brought to life by collaborator Ken Fulk, the atmosphere nods to the neon glitz of the Magic City with touches of sumptuous elegance from legendary institutions like Maxim's of Paris.

THE CUISINE

The menu, crafted by Chef Rich Torrisi, features the finest meat and seafood in the world, meticulously sourced, expertly prepared, and presented with a bold, thrilling, and absolutely delicious sensibility. Start with a colossal raw-bar tower adorned with shrimp, lobster and oysters while you browse our most remarkable wine list.
